UM PROGRAM OFFERS ARTHRITIS MANAGEMENT INFORMATION

MISSOULA--

Practical, day-to-day techniques for managing arthritis will be offered to western Montana senior citizens in April during free informational programs presented by The University of Montana—Missoula.

"Managing Arthritis" will be presented by UM's Rural Consortium for Health Outreach Information and Screening for all interested citizens ages 60 and older.

Programs will be offered at the Saint Regis Senior Center from 1 to 3 p.m. Thursday, April 10; from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. Wednesday, April 16, at the Plains Senior Center; from 1 to 3 p.m. Wednesday at the Camas Hot Springs Senior Center; and from 9:30 to 11:15 a.m. Thursday, April 17, at the Dixon Senior Center.

CHOIS, a project of UM's Rural Institute on Disabilities, offers monthly health screenings, presentations and demonstrations on a wide range of health topics for adults ages 60 and over.
